

SHE GETS THE JOB DONE

PHOTOGRAPHY BY RURAL WOMEN

THEME

She gets the job done. The NRWC is launching a photo competition celebrating the women who shape rural, regional and remote (RRR) Australia.

We're looking for powerful images that capture RRR women getting the job done across agriculture, industry, business, health, education, retail, hospitality, community organisations, volunteering, leadership and beyond.

From caring for patients in rural hospitals and teaching in local schools, to working in sheep yards, running businesses, supporting community groups and leading change -women are the backbone of RRR Australia.

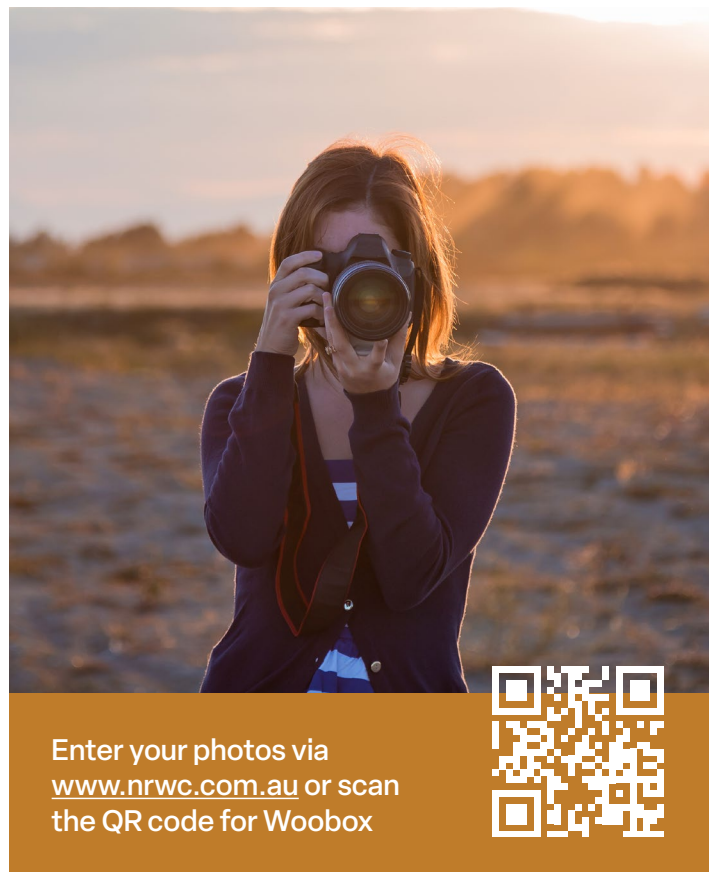

She gets the job done. Show us through a photograph!
