

Skilling regional, rural and remote women for success in business

Supported by

AgriFood Skills Australia and the NT Government are proud to bring Skilling Her Enterprise workshop and networking dinner to the Northern Territory. Facilitated by Engage & Create Consulting's Julia Telford, finalist in the 2014 Top 100 Women in Agribusiness, this workshop series has been developed to provide rural, regional and remote women unique access to business and management skills in the agribusiness sector whilst creating a network of like-minded business operators across the regions.

- Workshops for women in the agribusiness sector
- Building business and management skills
- Networking with likeminded business women
- Providing the right resources to evolve your business

2-day Workshop and follow up webinar(s) courtesy of NRWC including Networking Dinner on first evening

As part of the workshop series, we are delighted to include a networking opportunity with invited industry groups and regional dignitaries.
